3 March 1967

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD:

SUBJECT: Jack Anderson Broadcast of 2 March 1967

1. Columnist Jack Anderson, in his "expose" broadcast at 10:55 p.m., WMCA-TV, 2 March 1967, made the following charges:

+ President Kennedy was angered at the failure of the Bay of Pigs operation and blamed CIA. He quoted Kennedy as desiring to break up the Agency.

+ The President assigned his brother, the Attorney General, to watch-dog CIA. Anderson implies Robert Kennedy controlled the Agency.

+ The Attorney General, seeking revenge on Castro for the Bay of Pigs, planned, through CIA, the assassination of Castro or encouraged it.

+ Castro learned of the CIA plot to kill him, or obtained information which led him to believe such a plot existed.

+ Castro arranged the assassination of the President in retaliation.
